VEGAS TRIP - 3 winners

This lasts till July 17th and you can enter once per day by voting for anyone! I like the because many may be voting to help someone win and have no plans of going if they win, plus there are three trips. So pick your favorite and enter once per day by voting for someone.

AMAZON GIFT CARDS --- REPRINT - ENDS JUNE 30TH - thanks for all the great submissions!

We are in the process of designing a new website and would love

So how many of you have had a request to sign up to "WIN" your share of cash sent to your paypal account? These marketing ideas have popped up and preyed on the referral craze that has been going on in sweepstakes. Last night I had 11 requests for me to "enter" for a particular one.....

<https://www.facebook.com/amzrc/>

By signing up I give the person one referral. The people with the most referrals "WIN". First place gets $700, second place gets $300 and it goes down quickly from there to the 7th-10th place person getting $25.

I politely told the people who sent them why I wouldn't enter and most understood and never realized what was happening or that they were much better off spending their time entering something else.

This is not a sweepstakes...they are just paying people to get a mailing list. But isn't that how most sweepstakes operate? Well it is...but at least I have the option of possible winning an prize by signing up...in this example I am just turning over my information with zero chance of winning unless I am willing to bug people for the next 30 days to get them all signed up. Unless you win, or maybe take second, I do not think some of you to be part of it. If you have a photo of any win/trip (with or without you in the photo), send it along with a short review of iWIN that can be used for the website. I will pick one of the photos at random to win a $50 amazon GC. If you do not have a photo to share, you can send a short review...two of those will be picked at random to win $20 amazon GCs. Deadline to enter is June 30th. If I choose to use your photo or review I will print it with your first name and state only. I know some of you have sent me photos on trips, of wins ect that we have posted...you are welcome to resend those to me or tell me to enter them and add a review. For photos you are welcome to send as many as you like. IWIN is what it is because of the amazing subscribers. I am very appreciative of all of you, your comments, feedback, and sharing the wins and the word about iWIN. I will continue my goal of finding you the best possible sweeps to enter as we grow into the future.

EMMYS AFTER PARTY IN LA

ANTONIO BROWN AUTOGRAPHED PHOTO - STEELERS

I print this one more to draw attention to the fact that teams in the off season do hold sweeps...make sure you are still checking out their sites. This one ends June 30th and you can enter daily.

the time is worth it. Plus they are not having you verify your email, so someone could create many emails just to "win".

I know a few subscribers are trying this and all the luck to them...I just feel that you should be aware that these are out there. Many will sell your info, you are putting yourself in a nice neat package of a list of people who enter/do referrals together which I would not want either.

Overall, I think there are countless better sweeps to enter...you will waste time daily on this to have any chance at the top three. Last week, I put the Racetrac text to win in and had over 20 winners of $10-15 giftcards, almost as much at the minimum prize and it took less than a minute to win and claim your prize and many have already started to be shipped.

On to more winners...Tina H. had a great photo to place in the Red Hots contest last week. Linda A. won the NYC 4th of July getaway (June 2nd). Minta B. signed up and won three days later - the Polaris book from last weeks issue. Theresa Y. was one of the daily twitter winners from Dicks. Jennifer B. won the Jeff Gordon helmet (may 5th). We also had another Corona winner as well. Thank you all for sharing and feel free to post/email me photos on iWIN and share the fun with others. Congrats to all the winners!

Issue is a touch earlier tonight as am headed out to Universal to meet up with a subscriber on a trip win that has generously shared her win. We will be attending a special VIP event for the new King Kong ride....and I can not wait!

The new website is making progress...and still hopes to debut in Vegas this year.
